Description:

A gravelled driveway with pretty herb garden and plenty of parking space leads to the front entrance and into the modern kitchen which is fully equipped and benefits from an electric AGA and separate cooker/hob.

There is a breakfast bar which looks out over an extensive living/entertaining space accommodating a dining area with double doors on to the wooden deck, cosy sitting area with wood burner and study area with desk.

Above and overlooking the ground floor accommodation is a galleried mezzanine which leads to the master bedroom with dressing area and en suite bathroom.

Back on the ground floor, forming the other two sides of the courtyard garden and accessed via a glass sided corridor overlooking the private garden, is a further dining/breakfast area, W.C., double bedroom with en suite bathroom, further double bedroom with stand alone bath, recently fitted family bathroom with large walk in shower and separate bath, laundry/airing room and a double bedroom with access to the garden via double doors.

Outside:

The courtyard garden comprises a wooden decked area with chairs/recliners and table, a beautiful open-fronted loggia with dining table and benches and gas BBQ leading on to a lawn. There is access from the lane in to this area via double gates providing optional secure parking.

Situation:

Selham is a small hamlet nestled at the foot of The South Downs, the property is situated off an unmade road with immediate access to wonderful countryside perfect for walking/cycling and within easy reach of Midhurst (4 miles)/Petworth (4 miles)/Chichester (15 miles) and the South Coast beyond.

The Cowdray Estate (wonderful farm shop/Polo and Summer events) is nearby as is the Goodwood Estate (horse racing, car track and flying). There is a mainline station in Haslemere (11 miles) with easy access to Waterloo (50 mins).
